UNFINISHED BUSINESS:

- Amy would like commission to be more involved. Our main project, Civil Rights Park, is on hold because of finances.
- Shane Williams informed us that Johnny Downs renovations are in the works and will be completed by the World Series this summer.
- We typically have elections for officers in January. This did not happen. BT Booze put in a formal motion to retain all officers in their current positions. Motion passed.

NEW BUSINESS:

- Dorothy Silas submitted her letter of resignation effective immediately.

THE ALEXANDRIA
RELATIONS COMMISSION

- We discussed getting with Jim Smilie to update our landing page and brochures. Katie offered to head this.
- There was also discussion about putting together a welcome packet for new commissioners.
- Dorothy would like to see us take greater action with neighborhood watch groups.
- We discussed setting up a date for the breakfast in September.
- Current commissioners have completed an ethics course. There was question if this was one- time course or if we need to renew our certification. Shane will look into this.
- It was proposed that we meet every other month, as opposed to monthly. A motion was made by Michael Wynne and seconded by BT Booze. All in favor. Motion passed.
- Johnson requested that the mission and purpose be printed on the next agenda.

Meeting adjourned.
